BOOK TALK
with Gregory Michie

Wednesday, December 18, 2019
6:00–7:30 p.m.
Chicago Teachers Union
1901 West Carroll Avenue

Join author and educator Gregory Michie, along with a panel of fellow educators as he talks about his latest book, Same As It Never Was and the experiences that inspired it.

Gregory Michie is an author, former education professor, current CTU member and Chicago Public Schools teacher. In 2012, after more than a decade out of the classroom, Michie returned to the middle school classroom where he began his teaching career in the 1990s. His return coincided with the first CTU strike in 25 years and a new context of excessive standardized testing, rigorous teacher evaluation, and anti-Black and anti-immigrant sentiment.

RSVP:
CTULOCAL1.ORG/MICHIE

Panelists:
Nora Flanagan, Northside CP
Roxana Gonzalez, Prieto ES
Cathleen Martin, Jones CP
Kimberly Goldbaum, Seward ES

Moderator:
Essence McDowell, Associate Director of Communications for the UIC Social Justice Initiative